C. Cooper had the misfortune to lose a valuable cow this week.

Monday evening's concert begins at 8 p.m. sharp. Don't forget.

Ladies please call and see our New Jackets and Capes, at Ballentine's.

It is no fault of the goods that the prices have been out in two at The Racket.

Mrs. Herman Doelle was so much worse this week that her husband was summoned home from Crosswell.

The Giant Quartette are the greatest natural singers living. Hear them, and be convinced. At Yale, Thursday, of next week.

This week Mrs. John Wilson placed a beautiful monument in Elmwood cemetery to mark the last resting place of her late husband.

The liberty pole was again placed on end Wednesday last. Now old glory will be seen floating in front of the high school building--loyalty to our country.

Miss Perry is one of three women that ever lived who could sing high G above high C. She is also the greatest mimic before the public. At Yale, Nov. 23, in Central Hall.

J. C. Holden left last Saturday for a few days visit with his brother, Neil, at Standish. Incidentally he will do a little hunting--enough to protect himself from any wild game.

Ed Reed and Bert Tivey, operatives in the woolen mills at Vassar, made the Misses Shilson and McKenzie a recent visit. They looked at the Andrea Bros. mills and expressed themselves as well pleased with the plant--and the girls.

Among the last trees to strip and go to sleep for the winter is the Lombardy poplar. These are now dropping their green draperies, and their slim ghostly and gaunt forms will soon adorn the roadsides. Unless they are useful as lightning rods, we fail to see the good of these trees.

Up-to-date news from hunters in the Upper Peninsula is that six deer had been bagged, three by Grant Holden, and three by Mark Brown. This looks like the buck fever had the other men of the gang. Perhaps they eat so very much that the others are kept busy at cooking and do not have time to hunt.

Rev. A. Beamer, of Port Huron, gave a very eloquent and instructive gospel sermon at Central Hall last Sunday. He has learned the art of captivating his hearers, and his method of making Christians is evidently not of the hammer-and-tongs kind. The Master of old was not a drover to drive men to heaven, but a good and gentle shepherd to lead them there.

For a one-legged man, E. F. Pratt is a champion hustler at bricklaying. To see him mounting to the very top of his new building one would not have the slightest suspicion that he stood on his last leg. Soon he and his customers will be enjoying the new barber shop. Of course the first patron at the new stand is free--and we know the chap who is waiting for the chance.

Last Saturday was "chicken day," and all day from the north, south, east, west, and all other points of the compass, vehicles laden with poultry poured into town. Of course, with most of these loads there came the wife or the daughters to help spend the chicken money. Take it all in all, it was a very busy day for our merchants. This only proves how important to a community one small branch of farming industry may be. The aggregate shows a surprising income from a merely incidental adjunct to the main business.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. James Holden, held at their residence two miles east of this village, last Tuesday evening, was a memorable gathering. A host of friends and neighbors from this region were on hand to remind the old people of the date, and what it signified. Numerous presents were added to the vocal congratulations, and all were given in testimony of respect and because the bride and groom had passed so long a period in the wedded state. Only 33 Holdens were present, though it is said several precincts made no returns.

When writing to advertisers please state that you saw the advertisement in this paper.

Don't be a rubber neck. Come to E. B. Fuller & Co. for a rubber lined coat. Only $1.25.

The Vassar Woolen Mills burned last Tuesday. Loss $30,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

Again Fox & Rounds' ad occupies one side of our supplement. Read it, for they offer bargains in hardware.

McKinnis, the great violinist, will positively appear at every show. Hear him at Central Hall, Yale, Thursday, November 23.

The open-winter prophet is now enjoying his innings. But bye and bye the blizzards will come to bat, and the prophet will go out on a foul.

Make the lecture course your topic of talk to-day. Reserved seats on sale Saturday at Holden's drug store. You or your children cannot afford to miss a single lecture.

Along the highways and bypaths all around Alpena are posted the following notices this year: "When you shoot at a deer, be sure it is a deer, and be sure that you are sure."

Jos. Wheeler and family, who have resided for several years near Brockway, pulled out for Sanilac County this week. They have purchased a farm in Flynn township and will make that their future home.

In a letter received from Jack Crawford we find a dollar enclosed and a request for The Expositor. He says the two Jacks are together in camp 13, Grand Marais, and that times are good in the woods this winter. As reading matter is limited where they are The Expositor will be a welcome visitor.

Staley & McKeith guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

Yale is to have another drug store. The Lutz drug is being refitted and an up-to-date drug store will be conducted in the future by Dr. W. G. Wright and F. D. Mathews. The shelving will be done by B. F. Young and everything will be first-class. The location for a drug store is one of the best in the village and we predict success for the new firm from the start.

A rumor comes rumbling to us in a roundabout way that Dusty is not now looking for mossbacks with whom to play a game of checkers. He found one recently and thought he was easy game. As a checker player this mossback was like the old lady's preacher, so unlikely looking that if she was out shooting preachers she wouldn't cock the gun at him. It chanced that this one did up Dusty with some moves he wasn't onto yet.

A friend, who is a trifle cynical or tries to be, says that a few of Yale's young women want husbands so much that they carry lanterns in broad daylight. He is sadly mistaken. These lights are only flashes of indignation to warn men like him to keep their distance. If it was true it only points to the scarcity of good men. A wife hunting man in these degenerate days is apt to be deceitful, and we wouldn't blame young ladies if they demanded an X rays examination of a man's life and character before even courtship was permitted.

The concert given by the members of the choir of the M. E. church on Tuesday evening was a success. The church was packed to suffocation, even standing room being at a premium. Each number of the program was well received, the whole being rendered in a manner to elicit rounds of applause. Special mention should be made of the male quartet from Yale. This is as fine a quartet as was ever heard in the village, and the audience seemingly could not get enough of them. The receipts were about $40, which will apply to the organ fund--Richmond Rev.

Ladies' purses, gents' pocket-books, bill books, and pouches, many different varieties at Grant Holden's.

Fine Perfumes and Toilet Soaps, the best that money can buy, at Grant Holden's.

Don't fail to read The Racket ad. on first page.

Jennie Mann has been on the sick list of late.

Fresh bread every day at the Central Meat Market.

Rubbers and Socks at the old price, at Ballentine's.

Fred Francis will soon have his new house ready to be occupied.

All you need to keep dry is one of Ballentine's $1.88 mackintoshes. See 'em.

Owing to absence in Chicago, Dr. Milbrandt will not make his visit to Yale this month.

The Shakespeare Club and Reading Circle will meet with Miss Marcia Beecher Friday evening, Nov. 24.

A coal stove has been placed in the F. and P. M. passenger depot, which will be a great convenience to the traveling public.

N. W. Holmes, who for years has been the proprietor of the American House at Peck, has sold out and will go to Detroit.

Wait and hear something new--The Giant Quartette and up-to-date entertainers at Central Hall next Thursday evening. "They are all right."

Now is a Good Time to get the BEST BARGAINS in Millinery goods ever offered the ladies of Yale and vicinity. Hats are going to be sold. Call on Mrs. James Brown.

Spend your winter evenings around the stove, chatting, laughing, and eating. You can get good raw popcorn at Joel Smade's to help the fun for 4 cents a pound.

Putney & Chamberlain advertise a big boot and shoe sale for November 23, 24, and 25--three days only. If you need footwear, call on them. Read their ad on another page.

About a thousand town clerks in Michigan are nearly tickled to death over the sparrow bounty law. It's so much fun to count the sparrow heads, look out for cheats, and write out the orders for the boys.

Twenty-five cents is placed to the credit of Morton E. Moret, of Midland for a trial of The Expositor three months. Mr. Moret was a resident of Yale about seven years ago and naturally felt interested in our growing town. In 1892 he was the employ of S. O. Welch's grist mill.

We supposed that long ere this our old friend, James Kennelick, was in Ireland--or a better land. Judge, then, how surprised we were to see him in our sanctuary yesterday, and there was no ghostly smell about him. It's good to go back to the Auld Sod, but America is a hard place to tear away from.

Dr. Warner Cornell, Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist, of 229 Huron ave., over Knill's drug store, Port Huron, will be at the Rapley House, Yale, the second Friday of each month where he can be consulted on diseases of above organs only. Glasses fitted. His next visit will be on Friday, Dec. 8th. He will be in his Port Huron office every day in the month except Fridays.

The Werner Company, of Akron, Ohio, is the largest concern of its kind in the world. They write us that they are in position to offer paying employment to an energetic man or woman in this county. We would advise those of our readers, who are in position to consider a good offer, to write at once to "Department K," The Werner Company, Akron, Ohio. You must send good references. (Editor this paper.)

The Bay Viewers at their meeting last Tuesday evening elected the following officers: Pres., E. R. Beecher; Vice Pres., Mrs. J. C. Holden; Leader, Mr. Warren; Secretary and treasurer, Bertha Beecher. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Holden, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock sharp. An interesting program is being prepared. All members and those intending to become members should not fail to be present.

C. W. Garling, one of Emmet's first farmers and Justice of the Peace for that township, made our office a call last Saturday. His was no mere complimentary call, either. He came to try his luck by dropping a dollar in the Expositor slot. The dollar struck the right combination, and credit on subscription jumped to a year in advance. Thanks, Charles, many thanks, with the hope that you may live to try your luck for many years to come.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefits they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by Staley & McKeith.

For several nights a set of 'hoodlums,' otherwise smart boys, in their own estimation, have been making night hideous. With improvised megaphone horn they have been yelling in front of stores and residences and parading the streets to the annoyance of many citizens. They have not even had the decency to spare the sick in their awful serenading. Many people are complaining, and we advise the boys to stop their antics ere warrants are issued and a few fines assessed. There is a moral attached to this, and its index finger points plumb at the urgent need of a village marshal.

Two new Granges have been organized in Sanilac county by A. W. Campfield, organizer, one in Elk township with the following officers:--D. Barr, Master; B. Phillips, Overseer; Chas. Perkins, Steward; J. Meny, A. Steward; D. Welch, Chap.; Chas. Stayman, Treas.; I. C. Paldi, Sec.; J. Boulsky, Gate Keeper; Mrs. Phillips, Pomona; Mrs. Paldi, Flora; Mrs. Barr, Ceres; Mrs. Perkins, L. A. Steward. Officers of the Watertown Grange are as follows:--Chris. Murphy, Master; E. Whaling, Overseer; D. J. Mitchell, Steward; Geo. Bannett, A. Steward; John Potter, Chaplain; H. Gleason, Treas.; John Murphy, Sec.; W. A. Pritchard, Gate Keeper; Mrs. T. Gleason, Pomona; Mrs. Whaling, Flora; Mrs. G. Brown, Ceres; Mrs. Bennett, L. A. Steward. Any neighborhood thinking of such an organization by writing Mr. Campfield the matter will receive prompt attention. Address, Avoca Postoffice.

AMONG OUR ADVERTISERS.

H. E. Beard.

We wish to present to our readers this week the name of a Yale business man, born and brought up and always resided in St. Clair county.

Horace E. Beard first saw the light of day at Ruby, where he spent the days of his youth and young manhood. Mr. B. was raised on a farm, and knows what it is to battle with the drawbacks of farming. He loves this honored and noblest of occupations so much that it is difficult to wean himself from it--and he still owns the farm which is well stocked.

About 12 years ago he moved with his family to Yale and entered mercantile life by associating with R. M. Lothian in a general store, continuing in that relation and business for a number of years. More than a year ago he embarked in a new line of trade that of groceries and boots and shoes. His son Guy lifts some of the burden from the father's shoulders, and now takes a large share in the responsibility of Mr. B.'s extensive and increasing trade.

Mr. Beard is a busy man. In addition to the business noted, he buys all kinds of farm stock and makes extensive shipments to eastern markets. And with all these lines of trade, he still keeps his eye on the farm that he has learned to love so well. As a business man Mr. Beard is not, and cannot be classed among the "transients" who start up for a while and then go to another town. He comes to stay and so owns a fine residence on west North street, and the brick block on Main street, in which he conducts his business. He has not only planned to stay but is trying his very best to have staying customers. To secure these he endeavors to conduct his business on the only foundation upon which an abiding confidence can be built.

Ed. Newell is giving his residence on Jones street a fresh coat of paint.

The Auxiliary of the Loyal Guards will meet at 7 o'clock on Monday evening.

Some startling prices are quoted this week in the Bazaar ad. For bazaar goods this store takes the lead.

Drake & Rapley have established a branch office at Brown City and one of the firm will transact legal business there Saturday of each week.

Having disposed of his livery business, Ed. Newell has taken a position with the Deering Harvester Company. It will have to be an awful year for crops if Ed. can't sell a few mowers and binders.

Wm. McKinney, who has been sick so many weeks at his home in Brockway, died this week. He was an old and respected resident, and one of the leading men of that village, being especially active and earnest in his church relations and duties. His obituary notice will be found in the Brockway correspondence.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why Not You?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continually for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of satisfaction. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well:--ADOLPH L. MILLETT, Manchester, N. H. For sale by Staley & McKeith.

The philosopher's scales are useless out of his own hands.

Does it Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you; then in either case take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boecher's German Syrup."

It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Sample bottles at Grant Holden's drug store.
